BRAKE & PRESSURE TEST KIT, The Silverline Dual Converter Pump produces vacuum or pressure at the flip of a switch. With its compound gauge, vacuum and pressure can be read without changing tubing or ports. You can vacuum bleed virtually any brake system and the need to monitor the fluid level in the master cylinder while bleeding the system is eliminated, making brake bleeding a one-person operation. The colored vacuum plugs allow isolation of the vacuum circuit for testing and for identifying circuit components during reassembly.
